PIN-UP girls

by

ELVGREN

Sassy but Sweet . . . these pin-up girls will steal your heart. Gillette Elvgren's knack for capturing innocence in saucy poses grabs your attention as a humorous situation unfolds in the portrait. Elvgren was born and raised in Saint Paul, Minnesota where his father owned a paint store. Perhaps this kicked off his career as a professional artist. Elvgren studied at the American Academy for the Arts and graduated as one of the youngest and most promising artists. Elvgren painted from staged photos taken of models to create his lifelike appearance and attitudes of the girls. His audacious illustrations of girls were widely used in poster and billboard advertising including Coca-Cola®. Elvgren also painted over 400 calendar art paintings from 1937 to 1977. His pin-up art is one of the hottest and most sought after properties in the field. Elvgren died in 1980.
